Beschreibung

The Pershing 90 is an icon of luxury and performance — a yacht designed for guests who seek sophistication, style and speed in equal measure. Available for crewed charter from Marina Botafoch, Ibiza, this magnificent yacht offers an exceptional combination of design, comfort and prestige, making it one of the most exclusive charter options in the Mediterranean.

A professional crew of three ensures an impeccable level of service, attending to every detail to create a tailor-made experience of pure enjoyment and relaxation.

The Pershing 90 features four ensuite cabins —a master suite, a VIP cabin and two twin cabins— each with a private bathroom and a refined contemporary design that blends luxury materials, comfort and cutting-edge technology.

On deck, guests can enjoy three distinct outdoor areas designed for leisure and relaxation.
At the swim platform, guests can sunbathe or enjoy the sea and the yacht’s selection of water toys. The aft deck offers a spacious solarium with a triangular dining table, perfect for informal meals or a sunset drink, all shaded by a retractable awning if desired. At the bow, another generous sunbathing area with seating and a table provides the ideal spot for lounging or socialising while taking in the sea views.

The flybridge offers a third sunbathing and relaxation area with panoramic views, while inside, the main saloon welcomes guests with a stylish atmosphere, air conditioning, a comfortable U-shaped sofa and a large dining table — the perfect setting for elegant meals in total comfort.

The Pershing 90 is a masterpiece of power and elegance, combining speed, comfort and luxury with understated style. It’s the ultimate choice for guests who wish to experience the Mediterranean in complete exclusivity, with exceptional service and absolute privacy.

Cruising around Ibiza and Formentera aboard the Pershing 90 is an unforgettable experience: anchor in turquoise coves, explore hidden beaches, savour the island’s cuisine and soak in the sophisticated atmosphere of its world-famous beach clubs.
